

Naropa University - Boulder, Colorado

non-credit online course

January 17 - March 18, 2012

WWT 424e Gateways to Jewish Spiritual Practices: core teachings of Rabbi Zalman Schachter-Shalomi

That part of us that always seeks to awaken even more, I call soul. Judaism speaks of the soul as a spark of God. I like to think of the soul as holographic snippet off the old block. Each spark, each snippet, contains all... Part of my own story, my own struggle, has been to find ways to reframe and renew the tradition I was brought up with, that it might once again uplift and inspire us to live more fully in the world today.

Rabbi Zalman Schachter-Shalomi

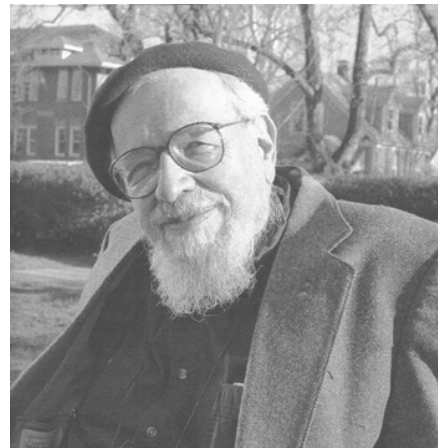

Rabbi Zalman, acknowledged father of Jewish Renewal, states: "A spiritual seeker is a person whose soul is awake." Gateways of Jewish Spiritual Practices is an online non-credit course designed to take the spiritual seeker (Jew and non-Jew) from where each person experiences their soul and guide them onward through the spiritual tools of Judaism. Central themes include:

- Renewal
- Prayer
- Meditation
- Psalms
- Sacred music
- Shabbat
- Jewish mystical teachers
- The Fourth Turning: a Jewish perspective

Inspirational teachings of Reb Zalman will be presented as writings, lectures, video, poems, songs and prayers.

Tuition: $180

Required text: Jewish With Feeling: A Guide to Meaningful Jewish Practice, by Zalman Schachter and Joel Segel, Riverhead Trade, 2006

Rabbi Zalman Schachter-Shalomi

Instructor: Sharron Szabo, MA

Sharron has developed this online course under the direct guidance of Reb Zalman and will lead class discussions and provide guidance on the ways of Jewish spiritual practices. Sharron has taught the Wisdom Teachings of Rabbi Zalman at Naropa University since 1999.

inquiry@ecampus.naropa.edu

REGISTER TODAY AT www.naropa.edu/distancelearning

For registration information please call 303-245-4702